CLUB "H.M.S. 'HAWKINS'."

These teams played a very even game on the Navy "A" ground, the Club winning by the odd goal in five. The Hawks were not at full strength and the opening exchanges were fairly even, and Proudfoot was the first goalkeeper called upon to handle, having to clear from a weak shot by Begg. Mimmack saved at the other end somewhat luckily, the ball spinning round the post from a one-handed save. The Club got away on the left and McPhail sent over a dropping shot which the goalkeeper misjudged. The ball, hitting the post, rebounded to play and Howard, running up, returned it to the net. The Hawks were doing most of the attacking and were rather unlucky in being a goal down. The Club forwards were shooting badly when they did get down, and Forsyth and Begg both missed easy chances. Corners fell to both sides but there was no further scoring before the interval which found the Club leading by the only goal scored.

From the restart the Club took up the attack and a scramble took place in the sailors' goalmouth which ended when Wright kicked clear. The Club forced a corner and, following good combination by the front line, Howard put the Club further ahead by beating Heathcote with a ground shot.

Angus was working well on the left wing for the Club but was pulled up several times for offside. The Hawks opened their score when Bishop got in the way of the goalkeeper to a shot from Smith. This success of the sailors encouraged them to further efforts and they were soon rewarded, for Smith sent over a shot that Mimmack failed to stop, and the scores were two goals all.

Both teams were out for the lead and the Club forced a corner following which they took the lead. Begg sent in a hard shot and Heathcote saved at the expense of a corner. From the flag kick the ball landed on the head of Stewart and Angus receiving sent in a first timer that had the goalkeeper beaten, but the ball struck the bar and came down to Heathcote who made a weak clearance and Forsyth headed the ball into the net, thereby winning the game for the Club. With a few minutes to go the sailors put on pressure and they were near the Club goal when the final whistle sounded, being losers by three goals to two.

The game was evenly contested and the Club just deserve their win. Gerrard was steadier than Bishop but both backs were beaten several times. Stewart and McPhail were good while Mair was inclined to wander. The forwards were fair at combination but several chances were lost through faulty shooting. The sailors badly missed Shenton on the wing and Warner as centre forward. The two Smiths played well and the two goals came from these players. As a result the Club add four points to those already gained in the Hongkong League.

The teams:—Hongkong Club: Mimmack; Gerrard and Bishop; Mair, Stewart and McPhail; Watson; Forsyth, Howard, Begg and Angus. Hawks: Heathcote; Matthews and Wright; Keen, Wilcox and Rockwell; Smith, Wrigley, Hyde, Smith and Palmer. Referee: Mr. Wakeham.

R.G.A. v. H.M.S. "DIOMEDE"

The Gunners were without Castleline and West, but gained an easy victory at Sookmupoo on Saturday by three clear goals. The play in the first half was rather of a poor quality, both sides showing up well in defence but combination was sadly lacking. The soldiers did most of the attacking. Smith cleared a Diomedes rush and transferred the ball to Couzens, who ran straight down and sent in a hot shot which Proudfoot failed to hold, thus opening the score after twenty minutes' play. Halftime arrived with the R.G.A. holding a two goal lead. They had had much more of the game than the sailors and but for faulty shooting would have been many goals ahead.

Early in the second half the sailors livened up and gave the R.G.A. defence more to do. When the soldiers got away again, Green running through, gave Proudfoot no chance with a good shot from close range. The Diomedes tried hard to make an impression on the R.G.A. defence but the inside forwards spoiled many promising movements which were initiated by the wing men. The final whistle sounded with the soldiers still pressing, leaving them easy winners by three goals to nil.

Smith in the R.G.A. goal was only once called upon in the match and that was to save a long shot. Smith and Turner played very sound games at full back. Bailey was good at centre half and also the wing halves, although the latter were liable to let the opposing wing men have a clear field at times. Couzens and Green were about the best of a tricky forward line, Doggerill should have scored on more than one occasion, but missed badly. Proudfoot saved some good ones for the sailors, but might easily have saved the first two shots. The full backs were both very unsound and only the work of the halves kept the Gunners from scoring more than three. They played very good defensive games, Wiggington being the most conspicuous. Sells and Dean tried hard on their respective wings and Edds gave them some very nice passes, but the two inside forwards made a very poor display and missed a good many openings.

SOUTH CHINA v. H.M.S. "AMBROSE."

On the South China ground this match was played before a large attendance. From the start South China monopolised the game and their combination left the Ambrose defence standing. In the opening minute Lai Wai Tong opened the score and within a couple of minutes beat Coysh a second time. Shortly afterwards another yell went up which announced that Chan Kwong Ui had scored the third goal for South China. On each occasion that the Chinese scored the valley echoed with the cheering of the thousands present. Pang Wah Hing scored number four and almost from the centre kick Wong Pak Chong the centre forward raced through and beat Coysh from close range. Before the interval Lai Wai Tong scored again and South China were leading at the break by six goals to 0.

The second half was more evenly contested, there being no score in this half and the game ended in a win for South China by six goals to zero.

The teams:—

South China.—Lau Hing Cheung; Ng Kum Cheun and Chan So; Leung Yuk Tong Wong Shui Wa and Lam Yuk Ying; Pang Kam Wing, Pang Wah Hing, Wong Pak Chong, Lai Wai Tong and Chan Kwong Ui.

Ambrose.—Coysh; Turner and Boulter; Happer Butler and Vasey; Bolneves, Armstrong, Welbourne, Hood and Thompson.

Referee: Mr. Collins.

KOWLOON v. H.M.S. "TITANIA."

This game played on St. Joseph's ground, was evenly contested and the Titania were somewhat unlucky in losing. The sailors did most of the attacking but the only goal of the match was scored by Mason during the first half. A high shot from the right wing beat the goalkeeper and struck the underside of the crossbar, bouncing down behind the goalkeeper who caught the ball and cleared after it had spun outwards. The referee blew for a goal and pointed to the centre.

After the change of ends the sailors put on pressure, but their shooting was faulty and a well contested game ended in a win for Kowloon.

The teams:—

Kowloon.—F. Wheeler; Morton and Knight; Leonard, McKelvie and H. Wheeler; Mason, Millard, Latham, Passo and Duncan.

Titania.—Logan; Lanning and Pottiger; Kemp, Weston and Brooks; Wiscombe, Jones, Emery, Buntin and Bates.

Referee: Mr. Smith.

EAST SURREY'S v. H.M.S. "DESPATCH."

On the Navy "B" ground these teams played a goalless draw. The Surreys did most of the attacking in the early part of the game and later the Despatch quite held their own. The sailors forced a couple of corners but failed to turn them to good account. The final whistle found the Surreys pressing and the score sheet blank.

Despatch.—Brewerton; Piddle and Connan; Henshaw, Southey and White; Balcombe, Brewer, Underwood, Woods and Carter.

Surreys.—Douglas; Cooper and Williams; Pether, Boniface and Bristowe; Charlesworth, Eaton, Humberstone, Butler and Mackleworth.

Referee: Mr. Blumson.

R.G.A. RESERVES v. FILIPINOS.

At Sookumpoo the soldiers had all the play and ran out easy winners by five goals to one. At the interval they were leading by three clear goals. Best scoring the first, McCormick the second, Best adding another just before half time. In the second half Best added another, to which the Filipinos replied with their only goal of the match. Best added another for the Gunners just before the end, bringing his bag of goals up to four. Result R.G.A. Reserve, 5; Filipinos, 1.

CLUB RESERVES v. SACRED HEART.

On the Club ground the home team were defeated by four clear goals. Adal, Cheung Kam Shun, Lam Wing Cheun and Chong Kam Cheun scored for the Sacred Heart.

KOWLOON v. EAST SURREYS.

Playing at home the Kowloon team beat the Surreys by two goals to nil. Vickers and Rasmussen scored for the home team, while Laight scored for the Surreys.

CLUB DE RECREIO v. H.M.S. "DIOMEDE" RESERVES.

The Club managed to win against the sailors on the Navy "B" ground. Fulcher scored for the sailors and D. Xavier and D. Xavier for the Club.

"HAWKINS" RESERVES v. ST JOSEPH'S.

On the College ground the sailors won by two goals to nil. Reading scored in the first half and Smith in the second.

H.M.S. "HOLLYHOCK" v. UNIVERSITY.

On the Navy "A" ground the Hollyhock won by a goal to nil, Bargent scoring in the second half.

SOUTH CHINA "B" v. H.M.S. "MABAZION."

The sailors had some bad luck in this match and were unlikely to go down by four goals to two. Chu Kwong Yeung put the Chinese ahead after six minutes play, but Fyworth levelled up the scores. Leung Wing Yak put the Chinese ahead again and the score was two goals to one at the interval in favour of the Chinese. Soon after the restart Chu Kwong Yeung scored again, but Fyworth reduced the lead and the sailors tried hard to equalise. They failed to do so, however, and two minutes from time Ip Kau put the Chinese further ahead. Result, South China "B", 4; Mabazion, 2.

SOUTH CHINA "A" v. H.M.S. "TITANIA" RES.

These teams played on the South China ground a drawn game of one goal all. South China took the lead in the first half through Choi Ping San.

Bull scored for the sailors following a corner kick. The Titania had a goal disallowed through a defender handling in the penalty area, and Grindle failed to score from the spot kick. The game favoured the sailors but they had to be content with a draw.

FIRST LEAGUE

H.K.C.C. v. THE UNIVERSITY

Last season's league winners—the University—suffered their first league defeat this season on Saturday at the hands of the Hongkong Cricket Club, on the Club ground. Both sides turned out strong sides. The University batted first and found it very difficult to score runs off the Club bowlers, only three of the side getting into double figures, the side being out for 71. Lammerit, for the Club, secured 6 wickets for 30. The Club replied with 151 and though they won comfortably there were some anxious moments at the commencement, Pearce being the only one out of the first six batsmen in to make anything like a stand. He knocked up a very nice 40 before being caught by Laing. The tail really saved the match. Lammerit and More getting together knocked up over 70 between them. Runjahn's bowling was dangerous, and he took six wickets for 42 for the University.

K.C.C. v. R.G.A.

The Royal Garrison Artillery were defeated at Kowloon by the Kowloon first eleven on Saturday in a First League fixture. At one stage it certainly looked as if Kowloon was going to get a walk over. The gunners were all out for 58 and there were sanguine hopes that the home-side would win easily. The home batsmen, however, caused considerable anxiety and after the fall of the first wicket just after double figures had been reached the next three wickets fell with no addition to the score and the gunners took fresh hope. The tail saved the situation and Duncan, Lindsell, Hyde and Pestonji pulled the match through to safety. Lindsell was top scorer with 39 for nine wickets. Fletcher and Pestonji bowled well for the home side.

C.S.C. v. CRAIGENGOWER.

The Civil Service first string had no difficulty in disposing of Craiggengower on Saturday on the C.S.C.C. ground, winning the match by five wickets and 132 runs. Going in first the Civil Service men hit out, making 103 for five, when they declared. De Rome, first man in, had hard luck in not getting his century, being caught by Laurence when only three runs short of the 100. Craiggengower were again hard put to it for bowlers and tried no fewer than seven men with the ball. With the bat they were equally unsuccessful, and were all out for 61. R. D. Evans took seven wickets for eleven runs. This is probably the best bowling average for any one match this season.

SECOND LEAGUE

UNIVERSITY v. H.K.C.C.

The University and the H.K.C.C. match resulted in a draw on Saturday. The visitors had first knock and opened in a doubtful manner. Nicholson, first man in, going out for one. Afterwards, however, the batsmen got going and, playing pretty cricket, scored 100 for eight, when they declared. The University replied with 120 and at one stage it looked as if they might win, but they had to be content with a draw. Their first seven wickets produced plenty of runs. The eighth and ninth collapsed for small additions and the only thing left for the side to do was force a draw, and in this they succeeded.

NAVAL BOXING.

SATURDAY EVENING'S SPORT AT THE CITY HALL.

The boxing contests held at the Theatre Royal on Saturday night to decide the China Fleet's championships for the year 1923, cannot be said to have produced anything in the way of real pretty fighting. Now and again there was plenty of billy boggling, but that, of course, does not come under the category of scientific boxing. There were one or two exceptions in the light weight and welter weight classes. Probably the best fight staged, out of fifteen, was the first of the evening in the welter weight class between A. B. Turner and A. B. Righam. Both these men were evenly matched and they put up a good, clean, sporting exhibition. Two fighters well known to boxing fans in the Colony made their appearance and both had no difficulty in carrying off the championships in their own particular class. These were C. P. O. Callaghan (middleweight) and A. B. Chadwick (featherweight). As regards Chadwick one would have liked to have seen him in not quite such an aggressive spirit when he was matched against Marine Ems in the final. Ems was no match for the Chadwick who pulverised him in a crude sort of way. A scientific display of scoring points (of which he is quite capable) would have been more enjoyable.

There was not a large crowd present, the ring seats being but half filled. At the conclusion of the evening's sport, Commodore H. E. Grace, in the absence of the Admiral, presented the prizes to winners. Before doing so he congratulated the competitors on the very enjoyable and clean, sporting fighting. In particular he congratulated the men of the H.M.S. Carleton for bringing such good losers. Turner, he said, had fought three times and he fought throughout in a very plucky manner. In the Heavyweights, Stoker Brown did well to stand up against a much heavier man. Brown would do well when he had put on a little more weight. Referring to the Featherweight class, the Commodore said Chadwick was at the top of his class and he considered that the others in the class were very plucky to come forward and to stand up against him. (Applause.)

The Commodore then presented the prizes.

HEAVYWEIGHTS.—(FINAL).

P. O. Cover (H.M.S. Titania) v. Stk. Brown (H.M.S. Carleton).—Cover caused some murmuring amongst the spectators for persistent holding. He was the more heavily built man of the two. The fight was spoiled by continual clinching. Cover got the victory on points in what was one of the poorest bouts of the night.

FEATHERWEIGHTS.—(SEMI-FINALS).

Ldg. Seaman Clark (H.M.S. Iroquois) v. Marine Ems (H.M.S. Carleton).—It is not often that a fully bearded man enters the ring. Clark was such and the House amidst much laughter, promptly christened him "Beaver." The sight was too much for the crowd who did not pay much attention to the fighting but cracked jokes throughout. The Marine was the much better fighter in every respect and he won on points.

A. B. Chadwick (H.M.S. Marston) v. Stk. P. O. Kesell (H.M.S. Ambrose).—Chadwick was given a walk over from Kesell who was ill.

(FINAL).

Marine Ems (H.M.S. Carleton) v. A. B. Chadwick (H.M.S. Marston).—The Marine, though plucky, was not in the same class as Chadwick, who proceeded to pulverise him from the word "go." Ems went to the boards two or three times and finally went down in a dazed condition, after a mix up against the ropes. He was not exactly knocked out but next door to it. The referee stopped the fight, awarding the victory to Chadwick.

WELTERWEIGHTS.—(FIRST ROUND).

A. B. Turner (H.M.S. Carleton) v. A. B. Righam (H.M.S. Iroquois).—A very good fight in which Turner showed his superiority towards the finish, punishing his opponent severely. Turner won on points.

(SEMI-FINAL).

Pt. Betts, R.M.L.L. (H.M.S. Hawkins) v. Stk. Martin (H.M.S. Diomed).—Betts knocked out his man in the first round.

A. B. Cushman (H.M.S. Carleton) v. A. B. Turner (H.M.S. Carleton).—Turner on this occasion found himself up against a tougher proposition in Cushman who knew just as much about the game as he did. Turner just managed to win on points.

Marine Betts (H.M.S. Hawkins) v. A. B. Turner (H.M.S. Carleton).—This was Turner's third fight of the evening and the strain was beginning to tell on him. Betts was the aggressor from the start but in the second round, however, as he had done in his second bout, showed signs of a recovery. Betts, however, was too good for him and in the last round Turner was hard put to it to avoid punishment. Betts won on points after a very good fight.

SATURDAY'S GARDEN FETE.

The Garden Fete and Clearance Sale of Toys held on Saturday in the old Wigwam Tennis Club ground on Mody Road, Kowloon, in aid of the funds of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, was a most successful affair. We understand that about $1,600 was collected during the afternoon.

The Fete opened at 2.30 p.m. and the ladies in charge of the Sale Stall were immediately besieged by eager buyers. The prices at which the toys were marked ranged from 10 cents to $2, and the value offered was no remarkable that by 3.30 p.m. the 2,000 toys on the Sale Stall had been sold. Then the American Stall and Special Lottery began to do a brisk business, as well as the Stall conducted by the members of the Chinese Catholic Young Men's Society. The Brau Tub was a popular attraction for the youngsters. The large Surprise Cake, neatly decorated, stood in the centre of the stand which housed the American Stall and the Candy and Cigarette Stall, and the young ladies who sold slices at $1 each had no difficulty in disposing of their tickets. There was much excitement when the slices were exchanged for tickets at 7.30 p.m., and the search began for gold and silver coins and jewellery.

The Band of H.M.S. Hawkins rendered a fine programme of music during the afternoon and contributed much to the pleasure of the Fete.

The general arrangements were in the hands of Messrs. J. M. Alves, F. H. Dillon and F. H. Barnes, assisted on the ground by Mr. Young and several willing helpers from the Navy.

The following were the workers at the different Stalls:—

Sale Stall.—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Remedios, assisted by Mesdames E. V. M. R. de Souza, J. T. Almada, E. Castro, F. H. Barnes, J. E. de Rocha, D. E. Carvalho, F. Ribeiro, and Misses A. Ribeiro and I. Luz.

Surprise Cake.—Mrs. J. M. Alves, Miss May Dillon, and Mr. J. M. Grace.

Tea Room.—Mesdames Albuquerque, Harper, C. d'Azevedo, and Loureiro, Misses Loureiro, Dixon and O. Xavier.

Brau Tub.—Mrs. Cashman, the Misses Dillon, Mr. F. Aslett, Master Desmond Dillon.

American Stall.—Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Osmund, assisted by Mesdames F. X. Almada Remedios, E. E. Almada Remedios, and Mr. C. F. Roza.

Candy and Cigarette Stall.—Misses Minnie Alves and M. Remedios, Messrs. F. F. Ribeiro and J. Rocha.

Special Lottery.—Mrs. Botelho and Mr. V. Yanovich.

Punch Poker.—Mr. K. Young.

Chinese Catholic Young Men's Society.—Messrs. Robert Choa, Andrew Tse, Luke Tang, Leung Kam Wing, Chou Chak Wai, John Fung, and Chan Kwok Leung.

Bank.—Mr. Rozario.

LIGHT WEIGHTS.—(FIRST ROUND).

Ldg. Sec. Kirk (H.M.S. Hawkins) v. Stk. Theodore (H.M.S. Despatch).—Theodore, the more muscular of the two, had a terrific swing which, more often than not, came off. Kirk was plucky and showed a better knowledge of the noble art which paid in the long run, for he was awarded the victory on points.

O. S. Bland (H.M.S. Despatch) v. Ldg. Seaman Wrigley (H.M.S. Hawkins).—Bland possessed a very fine straight left which he used to advantage in the last round, though in the opening stages Wrigley did most of the attacking. Bland won on points. A well deserved victory.

(SEMI-FINALS).

A. B. Butler (H.M.S. Ambrose) v. A. B. Eardley (H.M.S. Ambrose).—Butler retired in the first round doubled up with pain.

Ldg. Seaman Kirk (H.M.S. Hawkins) v. O. S. Bland (H.M.S. Despatch).—Kirk had it all his own way in the first round, but Bland with his dangerous left, improved his position in the following round and scored most of the points. They mixed things well in the last round, but Bland won after a very fine sporting exhibition.

(FINAL).

A. B. Palmer (H.M.S. Iroquois) v. C. P. O. O. S. Bland (H.M.S. Despatch).—Bland, the much smaller man, retired in the second round after standing a lot of punishment. Eardley showed his superiority from the commencement.

MIDDLE WEIGHTS.—(SEMI-FINAL).

A. B. Palmer (H.M.S. Iroquois) v. Tovey (H.M.S. Iroquois).—Palmer was on the point of going to the boards in the first round, being so much for Tovey who administered the coup de grace in the following round.

(FINAL).

C. P. O. Callaghan (H.M.S. Titania) v. C. P. O. Tovey (H.M.S. Iroquois).—This looked like a promising bout and the boxers mixed things well. Then Tovey had the misfortune to hurt his hand, presumably putting his thumb out. He had to retire early and Callaghan was awarded the fight.

BEAUTIFUL HONGKONG.

[BY G. H. GREEN, EDITOR OF THE "N. C. DAILY NEWS"]

It is said in Rome that if you do not write a book about the Eternal City the first week you are there, you will never do so. Which is only to say that the more one knows of any subject, the less disposed one is to dogmatize about it. And as the books written about Rome are innumerable, I would fain ask to be allowed to attempt at least an article about Hongkong without exciting more derision than that with which Romans greet the books about the Eternal City.

Without question Hongkong is one of the world's beauty spots. The fever-stricken rock as it was angrily dubbed in the House of Commons, when first ceded to Great Britain has been converted by British colonial genius into a place of magical charm. Its steep hillside are clothed in rich foliage and dotted with fine houses; the dancing blue waters of the harbour are alive with ships of every nation and design; over the water, front at its most plebeian, the tall blocks of flats inhabited by Chinese and the poorer class of Portuguese, have a picturesque character, faintly recalling Lisbon or Naples. It is true that science has not yet found a way of dispelling the fog which sometimes veils the Peak for days on end, causing mushrooms to grow upon one's boots during the night. But in the winter months Hongkong is lovely and the effect at night time, when the lamps twinkle out up the mountain is beyond praise.

Still lovelier are the bays and inlets of Kowloon, which one might spend a month exploring with daily fresh delight. My education included a morning on board one of His Majesty's cruisers in Mrs. Bay when she was shooting in the Admiral's Competition, and in the afternoon she put in a day at Taipei. The water was perfectly calm with that peculiar brimming effect which the sea assumes in these land-locked passages, and the hill sides, bare draped in mist, there relieved by a touch of sun, were aglow with soft warm colour. In harmony with the landscape's peacefulness the Chinese whom one met looked prosperous and contented. Why cannot all China be like this?

THE MAGNIFICENT ROADS.

Perhaps the greatest of Hongkong's artificial glories are its roads. One may motor now up to the Peak and I know not for how many miles along its sides, not to mention the splendid run all round the island, which track is now being extended to make a further loop round the south-east promontory. These roads are indeed a magnificent piece of engineering and nothing could excel their surface. Even in the busiest parts of this city, the smoothness of the streets is remarkable and their cleanliness deserving of the highest praise. I believe letters appear sometimes in Hongkong papers denouncing the disgraceful state of the city. The visitor's feeling is that he is afraid to drop a cigarette end lest one of the police should speak to him about it. Part of the reason is that there is no horse or pony traffic. Soft-footed bullocks draw the refuse carts in early morning. Ponies are kept for polo or racing. Even the brokers do their rounds in rickshaws.

The one thing about Hongkong I do not admire is the City Hall. I had the honour of being invited to the St. Andrew's ball. The decorations and entertainment were all that Scotsmen could wish for their national day. But the building is old, crazy and absurdly small for the crowds packed into it. Why the typhoons which have wrecked so much useful and ornamental property in Hongkong in the course of years have spared the City Hall, is merely another instance of the inscrutable workings of Providence.

INDUSTRIAL PROSPECTS.

Industrially Hongkong is undoubtedly hampered by the dearth of fuel. There are, of course, the great docks which will certainly increase with Kowloon's development, and one hears that the Tai Koo sugar refinery has recently undergone very large extensions. Then the Nanyang Tobacco people have recently set up a factory, a boot-making plant is growing out of the existing tannery and one hears of a projected chemical works. But coal has to be brought a long way, for what Hongkong produces is of a poor quality, even if it were available; and there is no big staple raw material at Hongkong's door. So it would seem that Hongkong's growth must be more on commercial and shipping lines than industrial. Well, it will be the less in danger of having its beauties marred by the pall of smoke which threatens to become a serious problem for Shanghai.

Water is, of course, another pressing consideration. Sea-water cannot be used on the roads without damage to them, and there is none in the colony but what can be caught in reservoirs from the rain. Also the Chinese population are inordinately wasteful. But the gradual substitution of metres for the old flat rate is teaching them better manners and a gigantic new water system is contemplated in Kowloon, so that the water problem is at least not likely to grow any worse than it has ever been.

With all its efficiency and progressiveness, romance, lingers about Hongkong as it does not in Shanghai. One feels still consciously in touch with the age of the factories and long merchants of Canton and dealings with China are distinguished by an old world courtesy and consideration which the eager claims of commercial hunters and international financiers have rudely dispelled elsewhere. Hongkong's policy is to live at peace with its Chinese neighbours; to avoid mixing itself up in their politics and, wherever possible and so desired, to be of assistance to them. Abroad as it may seem, one is not even allowed to kick a richa-coolis in Hongkong.

YACHTING.

SATURDAY'S RACING.

A large fleet turned out on Saturday afternoon for the fifth championship event over a course of Channel Rocks (P) Kowloon Rock (S), Lyemian Beacon (S), and East Rock Buoy (P), making a distance of eight and one-third miles. The wind, which had been very helpful in the earlier part of the afternoon, fell away completely when the leaders of the fleet were about a quarter of a mile from the finishing point. Many of the yachts were becalmed for something like the best part of an hour, giving an opportunity to stragglers to creep slowly up to the leaders. It was more or less anybody's race at the finish and the winners were blessed with a certain amount of "joss." Results.

HONGKONG TRADE.

The fortnightly report of the General Chamber of Commerce says:—

Cotton Piece Goods and Fancy Cotton Goods.—Since our last report the market has ruled dull and uninteresting generally. Local values are maintained and show improvement in certain directions. Clearances are poor.

Cotton Yarn.—There have been no sales and quotations are unchanged.

Yarn.—During the interval our market has ruled quiet. No business of any importance has taken place, but dealers were parting with their holdings at a reduced price of $5/10 per bale. The situation in Canton is getting from bad to worse and this is having a serious effect on our market.

Quotations are purely nominal.
Quotations are:—No. 10s $225/235; No. 12s $230/245; No. 16s $240/250; No. 20s $255/275. Arrivals nil. Shipments nil. Unsold 10,000 bales. Bargains 3,000 bales.

Woolens.—The market is again very dull and clearances are poor.

Raw Cottons.—There are no sales to report and quotations are purely nominal as follows:—Indian descriptions at $15/50. Chinese staple at $55/60.

Metals.—Market quiet. Very little doing owing to uneasiness concerning the situation in Canton.

Flour.—Stock, 450,000. Market quiet. The Sundries.—Market continues to be strong both here and in the sources of supply.

Sugar.—Market steady in Javas and quiet in Hilois.

Saltpetre.—Stocks, 10,000 bags. Steady tone continues since last report.

SOCIAL AMENITIES.

In respect of social matters one treads on delicate ground. One is told, I beg to state by themselves, that Hongkong is stand-offish and cliquy. Even harder terms are used. To which one might venture to reply that where so many of the population are continually on the wing, it is hardly surprising if the Army tend to move in one circle, the Navy in another; and that as a whole, Hongkong being a colony, the innate British reserve wears off less quickly than in international communities. One offers these suggestions with all deference. It is poor work to accept hospitality and criticize one's hosts. One thing which one may be allowed to say is that Hongkong strikes one as being a far, far smaller place than Shanghai and incomparably more tranquil. There is none of the hysterical rushing from one thing to another which makes life in Shanghai "so strenuous" as we say and there is certainly none of the night life of the International Settlement, though Hopulso Bay is becoming a favourite dancing resort. On this immunity from jazz and jamboree one could not help thinking that Hongkong plumes itself a little complacently, and one was congratulated on the one o'clock closing, recently introduced in Shanghai, as a step in the right direction at last, not before it was needed. The word parochial has an unkind sound but there are good qualities wrapped up in it, among them a very distinct understanding in respect of the things that count. Nobody at any time ever seriously believed in the democracy for which, at one moment of war madness, we pretended to be making the world safe. But the parrot phrase for a while made us forgetful of the advantage to society at large of having clearly defined hierarchies. In an age of general licence, there is much to be said for the moral autonomy and red carpets of Government House. For its physical fruits one has but to look round on beautiful Hongkong.

HONGKONG, DECEMBER 24TH, 1923.

SHIPOWNERS AND OPIUM SMUGGLING.

We can sympathise with the local shipowners who, through the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce, sought at last Thursday's meeting of the Legislative Council to obtain an alteration in that section of the "Ordinance to amend and consolidate the law relating to Opium" which concerns the liability of shipowners for illicit opium found on their vessels. We do not understand why the Hon. Member who represents the Chamber on the Council should have been considered somewhat out of order in making the effort on the second reading of the Bill, for though H.E. THE GOVERNOR said the Government were not by this Bill altering or amending the existing law, we may point out that the official title given to the Bill is "An Ordinance to amend and consolidate the law relating to Opium."

The section which it was sought to amend is one of those in which a fundamental principle of English law is contravened: in that the defendant is no longer "innocent until he is proved guilty" but is called upon not only to face the odium of police court proceedings but to establish his innocence of the offence with which he is charged. In the particular section under consideration the shipowner has to do more than that:

he is called upon to prove that none of the officers, their servants, or the crew —who may number anything from fifty to a thousand people—is responsible for the presence of the opium on board. This is to stretch the doctrine of the responsibility of the master for the acts of his servants to the farthest limits, especially considering the great difficulties of supervising Oriental crews. The law, as drawn hitherto, and as retained in the consolidating Ordinance, declares that unless the shipowner can prove non-complicity on the part of everybody employed on the ship he must be fined: the Magistrate has no option but to impose a penalty.
In passing, the word "prove" in this connection seems ill chosen; "satisfy the magistrate beyond reasonable doubt" might better meet the case, for, after every man and boy on board has declared on oath that he knew nothing about opium which had been discovered, it could still be argued that the unlucky shipowner had not "proved" the question at issue. It is no answer to this plea for exact justice to say, as did H.E.
THE GOVERNOR, in the Legislative Council last week, that the Government has not received from shipping companies the support it had a right to expect and that
"the comprador departments of shipping firms have a great deal too much to do with this matter."

The Government finds itself compelled by local circumstances to traffic in opium
—a traffic declared to be objectionable, if not morally indefensible. As a consequence of engaging in the traffic, the authorities are obliged to prevent encroachment on the public monopoly, alike in the interest of the revenue here, and in support of the administration of the law in countries where opium is banned. In the circumstances of the case, any strong reprobation of opium on moral grounds must sound insincere, but, of course, the Government is bound to take measures to keep the prohibited part of the traffic within the narrowest limits. H.E. THE GOVERNOR, doubtless, has wider grounds than are known to the public generally for saying what he did as to the sickness of shipowners and the mala fides of comprador departments. In the absence of information beyond that revealed by the police court reports we are not in a position to discuss that aspect of the matter. The rather hackneyed maxim that two wrongs do not make a right applies here, and it should be possible for the Government to frame a clause under which the law could be stringently enforced without inflicting a sense of wrong by weighting the scales of justice against the defendant in requiring him to prove the impossible if he would escape
a penalty. We recall JOSHUA FULLA-LOVE's comment in CHARLES READE'S
"Hard Cash": "British justice is tarnacle cash, but prime." It would be well if justice could be got more cheaply, but its quality should be in no wise diminished and it should be "equal and exact justice to all men," be they shipowners or sailors. We do not know how long the Government has had this suggestion from the Chamber of Commerce under consideration—apparently a considerable time—but it seems a pity that the opportunity was not taken of a Bill to amend and consolidate the law, in view of the early issue of a Revised Edition of the Ordinances, to remove a blemish from the Statute Book.

Yesterday was the Chinese Winter Festival.

Mr. Robert Hunter has been appointed to act as Assistant Government Marine Surveyor.

Wednesday, January 2nd, has been appointed by the Governor-in-Council to be observed as a general holiday.

Anthrax has caused a loss of work animals in the Philippines this year which is estimated at about one million pesos.

H.E. THE GOVERNOR has appointed Sapper F. Syme Thompson to be Second Lieutenant in the Hongkong Volunteer Defence Corps.

Twenty cases of small-pox were notified to the Medical Officer of Health on Friday. One of these was British, one Indian, and the rest Chinese.

Sir Robert Ho Tung, accompanied by his private secretary, Mr. H. A. Thompson, and Lady Ho Tung, returned from Hankow to Shanghai last week.

A Chinese at the Kwong Tai Loy boarding-house, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a knife, on Friday. He is said to be insane.

H.E. THE GOVERNOR, under instructions from the Secretary of State for the Colonies, has been pleased to recognise
Mr. A. L. Alves as Vice-Consul for Brazil in Hongkong.

Mr. A. F. Estates, British Consul at Amoy, has left for Ichang where he will relieve Mr. E. W. P. Mills, who is going on leave. Mr. W. M. Howitt, who has been on furlough, will take charge of the Amoy Consulate.

In the list of public and general holidays for 1924 published in the current issue of the Government Gazette, Tuesday, February 5th (Chinese New Year's Day), and Wednesday, February 6th, are given as general holidays.

Mr. J. T. Pratt, C.M.G., H.M. Consul-General at Nanking, has lodged a protest with the Civil Governor of Kiangsu, Mr. Han Kun Chun, against the proposed collection of a special tax of 25 per cent. on cigars and cigarettes.

Sr. de Freitas, Portuguese Minister in Peking and Doyen of the Diplomatic Body, and Mme. de Freitas, recently arrived in Shanghai on their way Home, and stayed at Mrs. Stephen's residence in Bubbling Well Road.

Capt. and Mrs. John Dewar, of Shanghai, have announced the engagement of their eldest daughter, Violet Baxter, to Mr. A. E. Green of the North British and Mercantile Insurance Co., Ltd., Shanghai, eldest son of Mr. E. C. Green, of "Ardmore," Sudbury, England.

A Chinese news agency reports that, owing to the trouble in Chungking and the failure of the Chinese authorities to provide the necessary safety and protection to foreigners, Japanese mariners have been landed to do that which the Chinese authorities have proved themselves incapable of doing.

POLITICAL ACTIVITY AT HOME.

EASES OFF FOR CHRISTMAS.

LONDON, December 22nd.
In view of the near approach of Christmas, there is a complete cessation of political activity.
In the meanwhile, as a result of the general election, the committee presided over by Lord Milner, which Mr. Baldwin appointed to prepare a tariff scheme has decided to dissolve. A memorandum of the work done during the eleven meetings held is being handed to the Premier.

GREEK SITUATION.

KING AND QUEEN ARRIVE AT BUKHAREST.

BUKHAREST, December 22nd.
Their Majesties the King and Queen of Greece have arrived. They were welcomed by their Majesties the King and Queen of Rumania and members of the Government, being accorded military honours.

CABINET'S INVITATION TO M. VENIZELOS.

ATHENS, December 22nd.
The Cabinet has decided to invite M. Venizelos, unconditionally and with complete free initiative, to return to Greece and take the political situation in hand.

SENSATION AT HANOVER.

BOMB EXPLOSION IN GOVERN- MENT BUILDING.

BERLIN, December 22nd.
A sensation was caused at Hanover at seven o'clock this evening, when the streets were crowded, by a tremendous bomb explosion in a Government building, blowing out windows from the window frames and demolishing the ground floor.

The attack was evidently directed against the Socialist Provincial President, Noske, whose stern measures while Defence Minister in 1918 and 1920 made for him many enemies.
Noske's family and other occupants of the building were not injured.

ATTACK ON FRENCH GOVERNMENT.

M. POINCARÉ EMERGES SUCCESS- FULLY.

PARIS, December 22nd.
The Poincaré Government emerged successfully from the attack on its proposals as regards allowances to public servants owing to the higher cost of living, the Chamber, by 392 votes to 169, having rejected the amendment, which was equivalent to a no-confidence motion in the Government.

The Chamber, subsequently, by 539 votes to 211, defeated an amendment which M. Poincaré also regarded as a question of confidence. The Government proposal to maintain the cost of living bonus at 720 francs, plus additional allowances for a family was agreed to, instead of the 1,800 francs demanded by the Socialists.

EMPIRE NAVAL CRUISE SQUADRON'S ARRIVAL AT CAPE TOWN.

CAPE TOWN, December 22nd.
Hundreds of spectators watched the arrival of the Empire cruise squadron in a sudden thunderstorm and heavy seas. The city was beflagged and troops lined the streets when the Admirals landed.

SOVIET OVERSEAS PAS- SENGER TRAFFIC.

IMPORTANT MIXED COMPANY FORMED.

LONDON, December 22nd.
It is announced that an important group of British, Canadian and Dutch transportation companies have completed negotiations with the Soviets for the formation of a mixed company for the development of overseas passenger traffic to and from Russia.

PRESIDENT OF REICHSBANK.

DR. SCHACHT'S APPOINTMENT CONFIRMED.

BERLIN, December 22nd.
President Ebert has confirmed the appointment of Dr. Schacht as President of the Reichsbank. He will retain his post as Currency Commissioner.

President Ebert appointed a committee of three to deal with the question of a reduction in imperial expenditure.

RAISULI REPORTED DEAD.

GIBRALTAR, December 22nd.
Moors arriving from Tangier state that the well-known chieftain, Raisuli, who was suffering from dropsy, died on December 19th.

Official confirmation of this report is lacking.

REICHSBANK CREDITS.

BERLIN, December 22nd.
The Reichsbank has decided henceforth to only give credits on the gold mark basis, discount rates for which will be fixed at ten per cent.

EARLIER CABLES.

THE SITUATION IN GREECE.

END OF MONARCHY FORESHADOWED.

ATHENS, December 21st.
Great efforts are being made to induce M. Venizelos to return to Greece from Paris. The officers' corps propose to telegraph urging him to return. The Liberals have telegraphed him, but the Democrats refused to counter-sign the message as their views do not altogether coincide with his. It is felt it will not be fitting to invite him to return until the constitutional question has been definitely settled. As a matter of fact a change of regime is already considered a fait accompli. The portraits of the Sovereigns have been removed from the Government departments.

According to the Republican organ Democratic, Admiral Coudrotis has declared he altogether favoured the formation of a Democratic Government.

THE BRITISH ELECTION. A CONSERVATIVE GAIN.

LONDON, December 21st.
The election at West Derbyshire, postponed owing to the death of the original Liberal candidate, resulted in the Conservative, the Marquis of Hartington, gaining the seat from the Liberals.

AFFAIRS IN GERMANY.

THE FOOD QUESTION.

PARIS, December 21st.
The Reparations Commission has unanimously decided to refer Germany's food credit request of December 16th to the Governments for instructions, and in the meantime to request the guarantee committee to report as soon as possible on the situation in Germany as regards cereals and fats.

AMERICAN CHAIRMAN OF BUDGET ENQUIRY.

The Commission has decided to invite the American expert, General Dawes, to accept the presidency of the enquiry committee with regard to the German Budget.

BRITISH RAILWAYMEN'S WAGES DISPUTE.

LONDON, December 21st.
The railwaymen's conference has decided after some heated argument, by a very large majority, to accept the findings of the Wages Board, which will involve only slight variations in wages.

LATEST CABLES.

AN UNEXPECTED DEVELOPMENT.

LONDON, December 22nd.
There has been an unexpected development in the railway wage dispute, in consequence of the Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen deciding on a ballot of members on the question of accepting the Wages Board's findings.

In the event of their rejection, the Executive will call a national strike. This step is in contradistinction to the decision of the National Union of Railwaymen.

EARLIER CABLES.

NORTH-WEST FRONTIER BRITISH MILITARY POSITION.

LONDON, December 21st.

According to Reuter well-informed circles opine that the military position on the North-West frontier has not worsened as the result of recent events. The happenings in Afghanistan do not affect militarily the situation on the frontier and are not altering British military arrangements. The latest official news from the frontier shows that the worst spot, Waziristan, has been very materially improved as a result of road construction and the existence of a mobile force at Auzmak dominating the heart of the Mahsud country, consequently practically all sections of the Mahsuds have come to terms with the British.

INDIAN ELECTIONS. RESULTS REVIEWED.

DELHI, December 21st.
The elections have resulted in some forty Swarajists being returned to the Assembly out of a hundred and forty members. The Swarajists are in the minority in the Punjab Council and a landholders' majority is secure in the United Provinces where it is believed the present ministry will continue to function. Moderates and landowners command a majority in Behar, Assam. A non-Brahmin Ministry is already functioning in Madras but the Central Provinces boast a distinct Swarajist majority, with the Ministers yet to be appointed. The Swarajists form a strong individual party in Bombay and the ministry consists of one non-Brahmin and two Moslems. Negotiations are still proceeding for the formation of a ministry in Bengal.

INTERNATIONAL HORSE RACING.

NEW YORK, December 22nd.
Mr. Wertheim, owner of the famous French racehorse, Epineur, prior to his embarkation for Cherbourg, said that he had arranged for Epineur to race the pick of American four-year-olds in three races next September and October. The distance would be one, one-and-a-quarter and one-and-a-half miles respectively. Epineur will leave France for the United States in July.—Reuter's American Service.

THE MEXICAN REBELLION. FEDERAL FORCES CAPTURE PUEBLA.

NEW YORK, December 22nd.
Advices from Mexico City state that the Federal troops took Puebla after severe fighting. Aeroplanes participated in the attack.

A report from Federal sources, received at Nogales, says that the Rebels are retreating towards Vera Cruz for their last stand.

On the other hand, advices reaching Galveston from the Revolutionaries declare that the Rebels have cut Obregon's communications and have begun an advance on Mexico City.

"MILITARY EXPEDENCY."

VERA CRUZ, December 22nd.
Rebel headquarters announce the evacuation of Puebla for reasons of "military expediency."

HUERTA OBJECTS TO LOAN ON "ADVANCE TEXAS OIL."

WASHINGTON, December 22nd.

The Rebel leader, Huerta, has instructed his representative in the United States that, inasmuch as President Obregon's dictatorship is endeavouring to obtain funds by means of a loan arranged with oil operators, on account of "advance Texas oil," oil operators and the Press of the United States are informed that such loan will be considered evidence of partiality, and is repudiated now and for all time by Huerta as head of the de facto Government.

"REBELLION DOOMED."

MEXICO CITY, December 22nd.

President Obregon has ordered the suspension of recruiting. He states that the administration possesses sufficient forces to maintain order.

Another rebellion is reported in Vera Cruz, Jalisco and Caxaca. Meanwhile, the Government states that it has obtained permission to transport eight hundred Maya Indians through United States territory to participate in the campaign at Vera Cruz and Jalisco.

It is considered that the rebellion at Jalisco, under Estrada, is doomed owing to the indifference of inhabitants and the lack of funds and petroleum for military trains.

A MILD CHRISTMAS. ON WHOLE OF NORTH AMERICAN CONTINENT.

NEW YORK, December 22nd.
Not within the memory of quite old men and women has there been such warm weather as apparently New York is going to enjoy this Christmastic.

The warm wave apparently extends to the whole North American continent, for reports from Canada state that ripe strawberries, and summer birds and butterflies are to be found in provinces which, ordinarily, would at present be locked permanently in a mantle of snow. Christmas shopping in New York is at full swing.

MISHAP TO BRITISH SCHOONER.

A CARGO OF LIQUOR.

WILMINGTON, December 22nd.
The British schooner Assand bound from Nassau to Halifax, carrying a cargo of 21,000 cases of liquor, alleged to be whiskey, grounded on the Frying Pan Shoals.

Constabularies refloated the vessel, which was taken to Southport in a leaking condition.

ANGLO-AMERICAN LIQUOR TREATY.

WASHINGTON, December 22nd.
Negotiations for a special Anglo-American liquor treaty advanced a stage to-day with the transmission to London of the latest American suggestions on the matter.

NEW YORK "WORLD" CHANGES HANDS.

NEW YORK, December 22nd.
The Philadelphia Mr. Cyrus Curtis, head of the Curtis Publishing Company, has purchased the New York Evening Post.

NEW U.S. AMBASSADOR TO LONDON.

HOPES TO STRENGTHEN EXISTING ANGLO-AMERICAN RELATIONS.

NEW YORK, December 22nd.
Mr. Kellogg, the new American Ambassador to London, interviewed prior to his departure for England, said his ambition was to preserve and strengthen existing Anglo-American relations.

LIMITATION OF AIR ARMAMENTS.

"TIME NOT PROPITIOUS."

WASHINGTON, December 22nd.

Mr. Coolidge and the Duke of Sutherland discussed the general question of calling an international conference on the limitation of air armaments. The President seemed to hold the view repeatedly expressed by responsible American officials, namely, that the time was not propitious. He is reported to have declared that in view of the general conditions in Europe, he did not believe that France would agree to any reduction of aircraft; consequently, a conference would be fruitless.

FRANCO-RUMANIAN AIR SERVICE.

TO BE SUBSIDISED BY BOTH GOVERNMENTS.

PRAGUE, December 22nd.
The Czechoslovak Aviation Authorities have agreed with the French Government on terms for a twelve-year air convention, under which Czechoslovakia will take up a portion of the shares in a Franco-Rumanian company which will carry out air services, with a subsidy from both Governments.

MISHAP TO "LEVIATHAN."

AGROUND IN NEW YORK HARBOUR.

NEW YORK, December 21st.
The Leviathan coming in from Cherbourg grounded in New York harbour after leaving quarantine.

It is stated that the Leviathan is in no danger. The passengers are being taken off by tug in order to obviate delay in landing.

In response to the Leviathan signals half a dozen tugs tried to drag her off from Robins Reef but so far unsuccessfully. It is believed haze was responsible for the Leviathan getting out of her course.

VESSEL SAFELY IN DOCK.

LATER.
The Leviathan was refloated late this afternoon and proceeded to the pier.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

NEW YORK, December 22nd.
Much space is at present taken up by a controversy regarding the responsibility for the grounding of the Leviathan. United States line officials deny that they gave an order to bring the vessel up the river, contrary to the advice of the Captain and Pilot.

EARLIER CABLES.

AMERICA AND SOVIET.

SENATOR BORAH'S PLEA.

WASHINGTON, December 21st.
Following the introduction of a resolution by Senator Borah urging President Coolidge to extend recognition to the Soviet Government, the Senate has authorised an extensive study of the entire Russian question by the Foreign Relations Committee of which Senator Lodge is Chairman. Senator Borah alleges that there is no proof of Russian propaganda activities in the United States. Meanwhile the contention held in some quarters favourable to the communists that the propaganda emanates from the communist international and not the Soviet Government, is regarded as a subterfuge by the American administration officials who consider it impossible to distinguish between the two bodies.

BRITISH HONOURS IN RECOGNITION OF SERVICES.

LONDON, December 22nd.

His Majesty the King has approved of the following appointments in recognition of services rendered during the Earthquake in Japan.

To be Companions of St. Michael and St. George.—Mr. Charles Palgrave, Counsellor at the British Embassy at Tokyo; Mr. Ralph Forster, Consul-General at Kobe, and Mr. Robert Boulter, Vice-Consul at Yokohama.

Commanders of the British Empire.—Mr. Paske Smith, Vice-Consul at Kobe; Captain Samuel Robinson, Master of the Empress of Australia.

Officers of the British Empire.—The Rev. Eustace Strong, Chaplain at Christ Church, Yokohama; Captain Robert Griffin, Master of the Peninsular and Oriental liner, Dongola; and Mr. Goodwyn Lish.

Members of the British Empire.—Mr. A. T. White, Miss Dalton, Matron, and Miss Little, Assistant Matron, both at Yokohama Hospital.

WEIHAIWEI NEGOTIATIONS.

DEADLOCK REPORTED.

LONDON, December 22nd.

The Daily News diplomatic correspondent states that there is a deadlock in the negotiations over the return of Weihaiwei to China.

The latest suggestions put forward by the Chinese Government are unacceptable to Great Britain, who, for the time being, is withholding the return of the territory.

Great Britain, in the draft agreement, proposed to give back full sovereignty of the island of Leuchungtao to China, and China, in exchange, was willing to allow the British Navy the use of the anchorage as the island which was to be maintained as a naval base under the control of the Chinese Navy, who are now seeking further concessions.

Discussions with Peking have failed to produce an agreement.

THE GOLD FRANCES QUESTION.

PEKING, December 22nd.

There were 142 members present in the Senate this afternoon when Chow Shih Chin introduced a motion for a frances against Huang Pu and Wang Keliang on the grounds that they were implicated in the gold frances scandal, inasmuch that Huang Pu had signed the agreement with the French Legation in February last, for China to pay the indemnity in gold, without the consent of Parliament; while Wang Keliang is alleged to have been negotiating for a settlement of that issue, without reporting progress to Parliament.

The motion was passed unanimously. The Senate subsequently sent a Note to the Government asking for an investigation of these allegations, and for Wang and Huang to be tried by the Court if they be found correct.

HARBIN COURT AND CAPITAL PUNISHMENT FOR RUSSIANS.

PEKING, December 21st.
As doubt had arisen regarding the correctness of the information the Ministry of Justice gave Reuter's correspondent in November, that the Chinese had given to the Harbin Court to inflict capital punishment only upon Russians and only within the Chinese Eastern Railway zone, Reuter's correspondent applied to the Ministry again yesterday, and was informed to-day that the information was correct as far as it went, and that it merely complied with the request of the Harbin Court.

Questioned as to whether the law really applied to all non-extra-territorial people throughout China, in accordance with a certain mandate of the Ministry, admitted that this was so.

The Ministry's hesitation to tell the truth was at first surprising, in view of the general interest attached to the matter.

CHINESE SPEAKER SECRETLY DEPARTS.

PEKING, December 21st.
Wu Ching-lien secretly departed for Tientsin in an automobile at six o'clock this morning.

Last evening, Wu Ching-lien issued a circular telegram to the provinces denouncing as illegal the action of the Newsmen in disbanding the parliamentary groups and replacing them by Metropolitan Police.

It is believed that Wu Ching-lien will not accept defeat, and that he will continue his political activities.

WHO WAS THE FIRST "LORD MAYOR?"

The title of "Lord Mayor" slips glibly off the tongue, but no one can tell us when the mayor became a "Lord" Mayor or who first enjoyed that dignity. The distinction was never conferred by a grant, and the claim by Lord Dartmouth's family that their remote ancestor, Thomas Legge, who was Mayor of London in 1334, was its first Lord Mayor is without corroboration.

Everyone knows, of course, who was the first Mayor of London. This was Henry Fitzwalter, one of the treasurers for raising Richard I's ransom, and mayor in 1189. Up to that time the chief magistrate had been the "reeve" or "portreeve," as indeed he was called in William the Conqueror's charter to the City, and "reeve" still survives in the word "sheriff." But mayor he remained till, at the end of the fifteenth century, people began to speak of "the Lord Mayor." The earliest evidence of it in literature is perhaps found in Bale (1534), "Maister Harry, my Lord Mayor's fool," and later in Rider (1559), "The Lord Mayor or Chief Justice—Praefectus."

Meanwhile, the Mayor's prestige had been growing. King John required that every mayor on his election should be presented to him or, in his absence, to his Justice, and in that year (1215) the first mayor's procession to the palace took place. To-day it is held for precisely the same purpose. Then Edward III. gave permission to the mayor to have gold or silver maces carried before him. The same king constituted him in 1327 the justice of the gaol delivery at Newgate, and as such he remains, taking his place beside the Judge at the Old Bailey. And still later, in the reign of Richard II., the poll tax of 1379 assessed him as an earl and the aldermen as barons. When the Sovereign enters the City the Lord Mayor wears the state robes of an earl.

But we have not discovered yet why it was that people came at last to call him, the "Lord" Mayor. No definite grant did it, and no man can be pointed to as having been the first Lord Mayor. But the explanation seems to be this: The custom gradually arose of prefixing "lord" to his ordinary style, just as it had arisen in accentuating such titles as Lord Justice, Lord Warden, Lord High Admiral, Lord Chamberlain, and Lord Chancellor. It became an adjective of emphatic courtesy attached to high office. In the old charters even the King's Christian name received it—thus "Lord Edward, King of England and France"—and it is most certain that the reason of the custom is found in the facts that the Mayor held an Earl's precedence, was the King's own Judge at Newgate, and at the same time, and especially, was mayor of no mean city.

FOOT-PRINTS OF THE HOUSEFLY.

HOW DISEASE ORIGINATES.

The mysterious death of four children in a Liverpool family is attributed to the flies which infested the house.

A scientist caught three flies. They were not special flies, but he happened to be a man with a special purpose. He was a scientist, and wanted to know how much truth there might be in the idea that flies carry disease.

One fly was caught in a living-room. One was caught out of doors. The third one was trapped in the household refuse-can.

He allowed each of the three flies to walk over a sheet of specially-prepared sterilized jelly, which was incubated. At the end of the fourth day each germ deposited on the jelly had grown into a little mass or colony of microbes, visible to the naked eye, and could be counted and identified.

The indoor fly yielded twenty-five colonies of bacteria and six colonies of fungi.

The outdoor fly produced forty-six colonies of bacteria and seven of fungi. While the fly from the refuse bin gave no fewer than 113 colonies of bacteria and ten of fungi.

Among the bacteria were germs of several intestinal diseases, of tuberculosis, several kinds which cause suppuration of the eyes, ears, nose and other parts of the body. The microbe which causes milk to go sour was present, and so were the spores which make bread, jam, fruit and leather go mouldy.

LIKE HYPODERMIC NEEDLE.

While the fly's mode of life may be perfectly satisfactory from the fly's point of view, from ours it is most unfortunate. It lays its eggs in manure, filth, decaying meat and vegetables, and things of a sort—substances where the germs of disease abound. The eggs change into maggots which bury themselves in the filth, in ten days or so become chrysalids, and ultimately hatch as flies. The fly's first journey is over the filth in which it hatches. It next flies straight into our house and alights on the milk jug, the sugar, the bread or the meat; sometimes in the dust bin; sometimes on manure or sometimes on the face of the sleeping baby.

The fly's body is covered with bristly hairs—each leg and foot being so clad. These hairs catch up and deposit the germs.

The fly, too, has a strange habit. It sucks up food into its crop, holds it there temporarily, and then regurgitates it. Supposing after a meal on manure the regurgitation is on your bread loaf! That is what "fly-spots" consist of chiefly.

The stable fly is in some ways different from the house-fly. It can pierce the skin with its mouth parts, which are like a hypodermic needle, and thus can actually introduce disease into the blood. The house-fly, cannot "bite" but deposits its discharge on the surface. If the surface happens to be a wound or scrape, no matter how small, or a mucous surface, the microbes deposited may gain a foothold and cause disease.

It is just as well to know the science of these things.—Es.

A big rich lather from a big new stick

Because its wonderful lather quickly softens the toughest beard and soothes the tenderest skin, Williams' Shaving Stick has always been the leading shaving-stick of the world.

Williams' Doublecap SHAVING STICK

Is the last word in shaving economy and convenience.

Follow it point by point:

1. A threaded metal ring around the middle of the stick.
2. A metal cap is screwed to each side of the ring. One cap serves as a holder while the other end of the stick is in use.
3. The cap gives a big hold like the handle of a shaving brush. When one end of the soap has been used up, use the other.
4. When all but a thin wafer of soap is used up get a Re-Load Stick and press the wafer on one end of it. No scrap or waste. The handsome, non-corrosive metal box will last indefinitely.

The soap in Williams' Doublecap and Williams' Holder Top Sticks is precisely the same in quality.

Made by the Makers of the famous Williams' Talc Powders, perfectly scented, medicinal and toilet.

SCOTTISH LETTER. EMIGRATION FROM THE HEBRIDES. A CANADIAN SETTLEMENT.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

EDINBURGH, November 17th.
Encouraging reports come from Western Canada of the success of the Hebridean families who last March left their inhospitable homes to settle there. It appears that the main body of the fifty families are settled on Alberta farms in favourable surroundings, and are already on the road to prosperity. The experiment has been a successful one, and the best proof of that consists in the fact that the new settlers are urging their friends and relatives in the homeland to join them. It is not desirable that this country should lose such a sturdy, independent, and upright stock, but it may well appear to them that emigration presents a method of escape from present hardships. At no time have conditions of life in the Hebridean islands been anything but arduous; in Lewis, the largest island of the Outer Hebrides, unemployment on the land or at sea has resulted only in a meagre livelihood for the crofters and fishermen. Recently, too, their position has become, if possible, more precarious with the stoppage of Lord Leverhulme's industrialisation scheme, which was designed to show the islands a possible way out of their depressing conditions, and with the rejection of his subsequent generous offer to the crofters of the proprietorship of their lands. In one case the people of the Lewis preferred to live their lives in their accustomed way, and in the other case they found it more suitable that a landlord should pay the cost of local administration than that they should pay it themselves. These refusals have not made the position of the islanders more enviable. The prospects opened up by the successful experiment in Western Canada should thus appeal with greater force. In this connection, too, it is interesting to recall the emigration scheme which, organised by Lady Cathcart, and made possible by her liberality, resulted in the eventual establishment in Manitoba of a generation of fifty Hebridean families. Evidence of the remarkable success of that venture is the fact that many of the sons of those who by Lady Cathcart's initiative were enabled to start life anew in Western Canada are now occupying prominent positions in the communities in which they live.

A Canadian paper, commenting on the Hebridean emigrants, says that one of the first questions they asked was as to the nearest church and what was the distance to the school.

FIVE SCOTS PRIME MINISTERS.
The succession of Scottish Prime Ministers has come to an end. There have been five, and of those two are living. Gladstone in some of his characteristics was intensely Scottish, though Oxford and Anglicanism had made him more than half English. But his name was Scottish, and so was his descent. Two of them were literally Glasgow men, the last had his birthplace beyond the sea, but his business, his fellow-citizens, and his character were all Scottish. It is sometimes said that the Scots have no sense of humour, says Lady Frances Balfour, or if some story is told which disproves that, gibe, it is said to be "a sense of humour peculiar to themselves." But, with the exception of Gladstone, whose sense of humour was "peculiar" in that he had none, his successors have all been marked by wit as well as humour. Combined with that is a certain austere reserve, peculiarly Scottish, which unconsciously separates the goats from the sheep, in the two nationalities. Then there are the latest forces hidden in the Scottish character which so often surprise those who are not of their country. It may be the force of strong emotion, a sudden revelation of the understanding of the northern half of the kingdom, or a sudden flash of remembrance of the pit from whence they were dug; a Scot will act when under some strong remembrance of the hills of home. As we think of them so different in their upbringing, so diverse in their education and social upbringing and in religion, they yet have one thing which binds them together in our thoughts—a conspicuous independence of mind, an integrity of purpose, and a deep-rooted patriotism which has its instinctive roots in the love of freedom and liberty. Not for nothing has Scottish history been such a troubled page of blood and tears and poverty. It is not in the green and flowery gardens of the world that character is formed, and religion becomes part of the history of a race. There are Ministers of the Crown who will have a larger niche in the world's history, some have fallen in their country's eyes, others seem to our eyes not to have attained the summit of their ambitions. We can be thankful that our five "first Ministers of the Crown" have had no personal ambitions, and have been just themselves, distinctively Scottish, because "leaf and true."

BONAR LAW.
When Mr. Bonar Law was elected leader of the Unionist party he resigned all his company directorships, worth nearly £3,000 a year. And he was by no means a rich man. When asked why he had done so, he replied that he could not allow the slightest suggestion of personal financial interest to weaken his influence with the public as a party leader. At the time his party was in Opposition, and not very long before Cabinet Ministers in office thought it no shame to hold company directorships. I remember "Black Michael," when Chancellor of the Exchequer, explaining that he remained the chairman of a life assurance company in order to keep guard over his own life policies. But this sort of view of public responsibility was not good enough for Mr. Bonar Law even when he was out of office. And at the time he was actually digging into his modest capital, because his income was insufficient to support his new political position.

My Safeguard against Strain and Overwork

Think of the harassing life of the average physician. Out in all weathers. Sleep broken night after night. Irregular meals. The inevitable result seems a certain breakdown. Yet how is it that doctors usually manage to avoid this disaster? Simply by taking Sanatogen.

Here is the opinion of one of the 24,000 doctors who have written in praise of Sanatogen.
"I wish also to state that I have used Sanatogen myself, and can speak only in praise of it. I am a neurotic, and was completely run-down. The improvement in my condition was marked after taking the Sanatogen for three days. I have steadily improved in health and strength and increased in weight. Sanatogen has more than realized my expectations. It has done wonders for me."

Sanatogen is the best of all restoratives, because it contains vegetable organic phosphorus and milk protein, the vital foods essential for sound nerves and vigorous muscles. Easily digested, even in cases where all other foods fail. Go to the nearest chemist or store, buy Sanatogen and take it regularly three times a day.
